

P E R C E P T I O N S

SYNOPSIS

Mini Synopsis (17 words)

A woman is torn between two loves; the love for her boyfriend and her addiction to drugs

Short Synopsis (50 words)

A woman is thrust into an alternative reality during a drug induced high where she is dancing in a world of her own. The woman's perceptions are shaken as her two realities collide. As the intensity heightens and her confusion escalates, she is forced to choose between her two loves.

Long Synopsis (148 words)

A young woman is thrust into an alternative reality during a drug induced high where she sees herself as a beautiful dancer with no worries in the world. When her drug dealer shows up at her apartment her two realities are intertwined as he toys with.

Just when the woman is submitting herself to the drug dealer her boyfriend arrives where a triangle of desperation begins for the woman. The love of her life wants to take her away from her addiction and get her help where her drug dealer wants to invite her into a world of ecstasy.

As the two men fight over her, the woman's perceptions of herself and the men in her life are surreal and she is confused as to what is real and what isn't. As the intensity heightens and her confusion escalates, she is forced to choose between her two loves.